MARKING
NEW BOUNDARIES IN DESIGN.

I first worked with Fincantieri Yachts in 2006. The engineers and naval architects within are ingenious and creative people improving technology in the pursuit of building superyachts. The many challenges of building a large yacht are seen by the Yard as an opportunity to create something of great beauty and the words “Technology of Beauty” are indeed correct where Fincantieri Yachts are concerned.

Sundance pushes the boundaries in design for exterior and interior, the features and layout are truly original and I designed her specifically for Fincantieri Yachts understanding their philosophy of yacht building. Her proportions and balance are inspired and her superstructure sheer line which runs like a ribbon from the bow to the stern above the saloon windows and around the yacht define her beauty, the elliptical deck plans giving further finesse to the design.

INTERIOR DESIGNER

CENTRAL SALOON

The interior designers Seymour Diamond created the opulent and spacious interior. Highlighting materials and textures with fine detailing mean the central saloon is a triumph, filled with natural light through the skylight and limitless views through full height windows. It gives you a feeling of being part of the ocean.
